Burials in special areas where rock memorials are allowed are marked with bronze plaques that are permanently attached to the natural rocks throughout the area. These plaques can be custom designed so that each marker will be totally unique. You can memorialize your loved one with any combination of scripture, words, phrases, a favorite saying or you may select an emblem that describes your loved one's life. Below are samples of some of the combinations you could use to memorialize the ones you love so much.

One name, one scroll with dates and a lengthy verse.

Two names, one date scroll, one inscription and one emblem

This marker has a military reference, no scrolls, one inscription for each person as well as one inscription for both.

One name, no scroll, verse and emblem.

Two scrolls and no inscription of any kind.

Large last name at top, one scroll and one verse in between.

The price for a plaque is currently $295. Date scroll replacement is $65 each. Once installed, a plaque cannot be removed and therefore cannot be changed.
